

LOOK WHO'S SIGNED THE CLEAN ELECTION PLEDGE!

Citizens for Clean Elections does not endorse candidates; and any listing of candidates who sign the pledge does not constitute an endorsement. Reach us c/o OVEC, P.O. Box 6753, Huntington, WV 25773-6753; 304-522-0246

Here's the Clean Elections Pledge we sent to all candidates for the West Virginia state Senate and House of Delegates.

Scroll down to see which candidates have signed the pledge as of October 18, 2006.

Clean Elections Pledge

NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OF SPECIFIC LEGISLATION

Whereas, the costs of campaigns are skyrocketing and candidates are often trapped in a fundraising money chase, and

Whereas, the focus on fundraising elevates the importance of personal wealth and special interests and undermines the principle of "one person, one vote,"

Whereas citizens are better served when campaigns are devoted to the exchange of ideas, rather than the pursuit of campaign donations,

Therefore, to protect the value of each citizen's vote and to ensure that a citizen's ability to serve in public office is not determined by access to private wealth,

I, [print name]_____ pledge to support the creation of a Fair and Clean Elections Fund that offers legislative candidates an alternative way to finance their campaigns.

State Senate

Wayne A. Weber, District 2
Evan Jenkins, District 5
Tom Scott, District 5
C. Randy White, District 11
Brooks McCabe, District 17
Harold "Pete" Sigler, District 11

House of Delegates

Steve Nicholas, District 12
Kevin J. Craig, District 15
Pam Carden, District 15
Tommy Smirl, District 16
Ralph Rodighiero, District 19
Melvin (Mel) Kessler, District 27
Betty Lilly, District 29
Todd Carden, District 30
Jim Francis, District 32
Lucille Chandler, District 32
Rick Starn, District 43
Doug Reynolds, District 32
Don Perdue, District 17
John Doyle, District 57